

THE MUNSON MAIL.

Vol. 5, No. 30

MUNSON, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, OCT. 5, 1916

G. C. DUNCAN, PUBLISHER

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

DR. G. M. GIBSON, M. D. C. M.
PHYSICIAN & SURGEON
PROVINCIAL CORONER

MUNSON - - - ALBERTA

A. J. LAWRENCE, B. A. L. B.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY
Money to loan Insurance

Munson - - - Alberta

J. H. MacINTYRE
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC.
Drumheller - - - Alberta

WATCHMAKER

G. A. RICHARDSON
Watchmaker and Optician
Will be at Munson on Tuesday of each week.

List your sales with the
HIGHLAND AUCTIONEER

P. BATSON

Delia - - - Alberta

Before making dates, see the
MUNSON AUCTIONEER

W. H. DALY

Munson - - - Alberta

DENTISTRY

DR. W. A. PIPER

Will visit
Della on the 24th to 26th and Craigyle
27th to 29th of each month

Head Office, Drumheller, 1st ten days of each month until further notice.

L. C. JACKSON & COMPANY

Real Estate & Financial Brokers
NOTARIES CONVEYANCERS
OFFICIAL AUDITORS AUCTIONEERS

Insurance Money to Loan Marriage Licenses

Agents for Hudson's Bay Lands

FARMS FOR SALE ON ANY TERMS

MUNSON - - - Alberta

CLASSIFIED ADS

Advertising under the head of Wanted, Lost, Found, Wanted, Etc., etc., will not be accepted unless accompanied by a deposit of $1.00. All other classes of advertisements will be accepted at the rate of 10c per line, minimum $1.00, and no insertion.

All ads in this column must be accompanied by cash

Wanted

WANTED—Man to work on farm.
Yearly engagement. Apply S.
W. Sec. 19-30-19 W. 4th, W. S.
Turner, Munson. 30-32c

APPRENTICE WANTED—Boy to learn the printing trade. Apply at the Mail Office.

PRINTER WANTED—Compositor with two or three years' experience. Apply at once to the Mail, Munson, Alta.

For Sale

FOR SALE—4 good milch cows, now milking. Apply to W.
Smith, 5 miles east of Munson.

FOR SALE—1 Stewart range, heater bed, reclining chair, overcoat, 11-lb. quilts. The goods can be seen at W. F. White's Farm,
#20-31 Mrs. Murdoch, Munson.

Lost

LOST—On the street in Munson one leather watch fob bearing letters I H. C. Finder return to F. Boyle, Merchants Bank.

MORRIN NEWS ITEMS

Emil Olsen was a business visitor to Calgary on Thursday.

Mrs. A. Sutherland has been quite ill but her many friends will be glad to know that she is improving nicely.

Miss Matilda Farley returned to her duties in LaRoy & Co.'s Store on Monday.

Our annual October snow fall was in a great hurry to reach us as it came on the first of the month.
The Sunday service at Morrin will be conducted by Mr. D. V.
Boyer as Mr. Rogers is taking that service at Golden Grains.

Corp. Morley LaRoy, Pie. John
McDonald, Pte. Thos. and Chas.
Morgan, Pte. T. T. McGillivray, and Pte. T. Ankers of the 187th Battalion have returned to Sarces Camp, Calgary. Pie. Joy States he obtained longer leave of absence to help with the threshing.

Mrs. Ella Olsen spent the week end at Big Valley with her sister, Mrs. McTavish.

The Red Cross Society acknowledges the following garments:

24 knitted handkerchiefs, 5 triangular shirts, 12 surgical shirts, 2 surgical shirts, Mrs. Mills; 1 pair socks, Mrs. H. High.

The society forwarded $60.00 for the soldiers at Christmas. This amount buys 4
pairs of socks and fills them.

The Bank of Hamilton in the village of Caron, Sask., 18 miles west of Moose Jaw, Thursday night robbed of $900.00 by a gang of burglars. They held up the bank and the gang was made up of four men. They cut all the telegraph and telephone communications
before entering the village, after which they blew open the bank
for dear life.

We recently read where Mrs. —
had moved into her new home but
no mention was made of Charlie.
We have been wondering if he was left behind in the transfer.

A few evenings ago a young man who had been working in the country came home rather late, rushed
into the stable to take out his rig
there being a dance that night and discovered, another party driving away in his outfit. His request for an explanation met with no response, and not to be outdone he rounds up a horse which had not been harnessed for some time and
was feeling rather lively, and he left town with some speed sitting on the dash board and holding on for dear life.

G. E. Kennedy's Drugstore has been raised quite a distance from the ground and a new foundation
is to be laid.

The building used by the Watkin
Remedy Co. has been moved to the rear of the lot and we understand Mrs. Bert McCarty will erect a new one on one site.

Sam Pocklington left this week
to join his battalion. The many friends of Mrs. Pocklington regret that she is not to remain among us.
A few evenings ago the ladies of the Red Cross tendered her a farewell reception and presented her with a ring as a token of their esteem.

Quite a delegation of our business men were in Calgary last week.

The delegation, said here by
P. Batson was well attended.

Cards add a good deal of interest
and other articles brought

prices altho the day was disagreeable and kept many away. This is the first large sale he has held in town and it is his intention to hold others here where arrangements

can be made.

Mrs. J. Bradford and Master
Russell are spending a few days in Red Deer.

James Innis left on Wednesday morning for Westminster where he intends to spend the winter.

We have been congratulated
several times recently and asked if it was a fact that we had stopped writing the Delta briefs which were taking up valuable space in the paper and imposing on the innocent public. We did not say "no" but we were not thinking back strongly.
The only reason we missed the last 2 issues was that we have been to Calgary and our fountain pen went dry.

DELIA NEWS BRIEFS

RED CROSS NOTES

Mr. Perry, who resides near Stonehaw and has been very sick for some time with appendicitis at the Hotel Restaurant, is improving and it is hoped he will be able to move to his home this week.

Mr. Church, who sometime past had the misfortune to have his leg broken, is reported doing well.

For several weeks now there has been no pictures at the Pantages.

Miss Jenny Ritchie is clerking at the Pie Store.

W. B. Dunlop and family returned last week from the East.

Reports from the harvest fields are coming in rather slowly but we hear that Mr. Stockel 16 acres in the valley and the last heard of him he was hustling away to join the spike pitchers and singing a new song which we understand is of his own composing.

Mrs. Frank Daupre and child have been visiting relatives who live at Mechiwa during the summer, returned to their home in Boston, Mass., last week. Miss Evelyn Chambers accompanied them and will spend several months with her grandfather.

S. Smith after several weeks absence, away with an elevator construction crew, has returned and has been assisting at the Flett dryery to buy socks for the soldiers at Christmas. This amount buys 4
pairs of socks and fills them.

The Bank of Hamilton in the village of Caron, Sask., 18 miles
west of Moose Jaw, Thursday night
robbed of $900.00 by a gang of burglars. They held up the bank
and the gang was made up of four men. They cut all the telegraph and telephone communications
before entering the village, after which they blew open the bank
for dear life.

We recently read where Mrs. —
had moved into her new home but
no mention was made of Charlie.
We have been wondering if he was
left behind in the transfer.

A few evenings ago a young man
who had been working in the country
came home rather late, rushed
into the stable to take out his rig
there being a dance that night and
discovered, another party driving away in his outfit. His request for an explanation met with no response, and not to be outdone he rounds up a horse which had not been harnessed for some time and
was feeling rather lively, and he
left town with some speed sitting
on the dash board and holding
on for dear life.

G. E. Kennedy's Drugstore has been raised quite a distance from
the ground and a new foundation
is to be laid.

The building used by the Watkin
Remedy Co. has been moved to the rear of the lot and we understand
Mrs. Bert McCarty will erect a new one on one site.

Sam Pocklington left this week
to join his battalion. The many friends of Mrs. Pocklington regret that she is not to remain among us.
A few evenings ago the ladies of the Red Cross tendered her a farewell
reception and presented her with a ring as a token of their esteem.

Quite a delegation of our business men were in Calgary last week.

The delegation, said here by
P. Batson was well attended.

Cards add a good deal of interest
and other articles brought

prices altho the day was disagreeable and kept many away. This is the first large sale he has held in town and it is his intention to hold others here where arrangements

can be made.

Mrs. J. Bradford and Master
Russell are spending a few days in Red Deer.

James Innis left on Wednesday morning for Westminster where he intends to spend the winter.

We have been congratulated
several times recently and asked if
it was a fact that we had stopped
writing the Delta briefs which were

ROWLEY NEWS

RED CROSS NOTES

The Red Cross Sewing Guild wish to announce that they will not make a shipment of vegetables to the Ogden home this week. The condition of the weather has made it impossible for farmers to bring their vegetables into town. Supplies of vegetables, pickles and fruit will be received by the Society during the next few weeks. The date of shipping to Calgary will be published later.

The farmers are very much discouraged about the conditions of the weather. Rain, snow and high winds have prevented threshing and stacking.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben King of Mc-Cormick spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mack Macfarlane.

A number from Rowley attended the farewell party at Lake McKee-school on Sept. 26th, given in honor of Miss Edith McKee, who on Friday, the 29th, left for her home in California.

On Tuesday Mrs. Melville Richardson was called to her home on account of the illness of her father,
Mr. Jas. Russell.

Word was received on Friday of the death of Mr. Russell. Mr. Melville Richardson and Mr. Jack
Thompson attended the funeral.

The people of Rowley extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. Hackler is working in Mr.
Hodgson's mine and expects to move his family to Ant Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Baldwin spent
Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Tuck.

Mrs. Bars of Delia addressed the

SUNDAY SCHOOL AT ROWLEY

FRANK SWALLOW'S NEW RESIDENCE

Frank Swallow's new residence is nearing completion.

HODGSON MINE CLOSED FOR REPAIRS

The patrons of the Hodgson Coal Mine near Rowley will please note that the mine has been closed for putting in a new lift and other repairs.

They're Off

Arcadia constituency is first in the alphabet and also apparently intends to be in its contributions to the Patriotic Fund.

On Tuesday Mrs. Melville Richardson was called to her home on account of the illness of her father,
Mr. Jas. Russell.

Word was received on Friday of the death of Mr. Russell. Mr. Melville Richardson and Mr. Jack
Thompson attended the funeral.

The people of Rowley extend their
sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. Hackler is working in Mr.
Hodgson's mine and expects to
move his family to Ant Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Baldwin spent
Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Tuck.

Mrs. Bars of Delia addressed the

THE PRAIRIE & OKANAGAN REALTY CO.

Limited

VERNON, B. C.

THE MEN WHO TRADE THE EARTH

Owing to our extensive advertising and our branch offices all over America, we are in a position to handle your property and guarantee quick results.

We have a large list of B. C. Fruit Land, Ranch Land and City Property to exchange for Prairie Land. If you have any property for sale or exchange call in and see us, we solicit your business.

A branch of the above firm will be opened up at Munson in the office that was originally used by the Crown Lumber Co., by

H. L. Imerson

Munson

Ford

New Prices Aug. 1, 1916

Runabout - - - $475

Touring Car - - - 495

F. O. B. Ford, Ont.

HUGH SKINNER, Dealer

Munson - - - Alberta

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

Incorporated 1869

HEAD OFFICE	- - -	Montreal
CAPITAL PAID UP	- - -	$11,800,000
RESERVE FUNDS	- - -	$18,266,000
TOTAL ASSETS	- - -	$234,000,000

GRAIN CHECKS CASHED

We advance Money on Storage Tickets and Bills of Lading for Cars of Grain

Special attention given to Farmers' Sale Notes and money advanced

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

Interest paid on deposits at highest current rates. All banking business given prompt attention

H. W. HUTCHINGS, Manager - Munson Branch

TRAINING AND A GOOD PARTNER WILL MAKE STRONG COMBINATION

WIFE HELPS THE SOLDIER-FARMER TO SUCCEED

The Government Is Making a Special Monetary Allowance in Addition to the Pension, for the Maintenance of Both the Soldier And his Family, While he is Receiving Elementary Training

"What makes you think you will succeed at that?"

The question was asked of a returned soldier who had expressed a very strong desire to get back to the land.

"We'll see," he answered.

"Do you mean to say she persuaded you?"

"No, I didn't need any persuading. But she wants to go as much as I do."

"Does she understand what it means?"

"She's right. She was born and brought up on a farm; she is not afraid of hard work; and she prefers to live on the land."

"For the children's sake?"

"We've got none worse luck. No, she'll be all right."

That man's battle is half won.

He was not a farm boy himself, and had but little knowledge and little experience he possesses is enough. It is therefore taking advantage of the fact that there are such masters as gardening and poultry raising, already started by the Military Service, and that some of its Convalescent Hospitals; he has aims at taking a course of extra training on one of the agricultural schools.

As announced some time ago, the Government is making a special allowance, in addition to the pension, for the maintenance of both the soldier and his family while he is being trained, so that he may learn a new occupation, so no man should have the slightest fear of losing the full advantage of the training put at his disposal to increase his capacity and his chances.

A trained man, and a wife both experienced and willing, make a team hard to beat.

It is very interesting to see that the Government has been most practical in England.

Their Government decided, a few months ago, to let three hundred ex-soldiers of ex-soldiers—or rather "ex-service men"—have a free hand in agriculture, and the man who has ploughing the sea will have his chance of ploughing the soil.

The Italian Ministry of Agriculture has just announced that in selecting settlers for these colonies "preferential treatment will be given to men of equal merit and qualifications, to those whose wives or sisters or daughters have had previous experience in milking or other farm operations, as the result of their employment on the farms before the war."

As a matter of fact, women in the Old Country have taken a large and even extraordinary share in working the farms, while the war has deprived so many of our own sons and sons-in-law. Women of every social rank have done their duty, and have kept their places in the army; they were not only quite unaccustomed to manual labor, but free from any need of it.

Canadian women, the vast majority of them, have never heard the字 "settling." Now we shall hear words familiar to them, and a very large number even have been brought up on farms. Many of our returned soldiers, therefore, think of going back to the land, and have decided to do it, and have kept their places in the army; they were not only quite unaccustomed to manual labor, but free from any need of it.

Canadian women, the vast majority of them, have never heard the word "settling." Now we shall hear words familiar to them, and a very large number even have been brought up on farms. Many of our returned soldiers, therefore, think of going back to the land, and have decided to do it, and have kept their places in the army; they were not only quite unaccustomed to manual labor, but free from any need of it.

Special training is given, of course, for all who have been trained, the greatest care is taken to choose the occupation best suited to each man's ability, and the training is of the utmost importance to the great national industry and needs the energy of every man qualified to undertake it.

To Advertise Butter

The National Dairy Council, according to reports sent out by the secretary, is planning to follow the example of the orange and raisin grower, and to start a similar campaign to cover three years, spending at the rate of $100,000 a month.

This will be used in advertising the value and the healthfulness of milk, butter, cheese, cream and ice cream.

The advertisements will be carried in the leading magazines and daily papers, and the advertising programme, but not at all impracticable if the dairy interests are willing to pool their resources.

The dairy interests, however, will be well done, it will be profitable to the dairymen of the country. It will interest the public in the production of products permanently; and if the supply can be increased to take care of the demand, the results will be advance in prices, the results will be satisfactory.—Warren's Farmer.

Captain Koenig's "Sacrifice."

If Captain Koenig, of the Deutsche Bank, had not been a good man, he might have made a little pile. He was offered, for example, $500 a week, and he would have been a star on the stage. He was offered $50,000 by a journalist for liberty to accept which he would have to leave the Atlantic. He was offered $50,000 to hand over some secret connected with the German secret service, to marry a lady who would have given him a handsome reward for his name. Captain Koenig, however, declined. But it is reported that when peace is proclaimed he will return to the United States. He left Germany with more money than he came with.

High: There's Fred Sears over there. He made a million in the Steel last year.

Low: I don't know, but he made it.

Fainter: And will Bobby be sorry when his sister?

Bobby: Yes, I will, "cause I like you."—Boston Transcript.

How Britain Cares For Her Soldiers

Former French Minister Loud in Praise of British System

Adolphe Brisson, formerly a French minister, has returned to Britain to speak in favor of the British system of caring for the soldier.

He has been greatly impressed by the way the British care for their soldiers.

"We meet, generals who are not only warriors, but who are also men of culture, who are not only fighters, but who are also men of culture," said M. Brisson, "but who are also men of culture."

"The English have a spirit of leadership."

"They have a spirit of leadership."

"DRESS FURS" DESIGNED TO TOP FALL FROCKS

*Natural Ermine Lends
a Sumptuous Air*

Ermine Ties the Cape of Mole

The Long Stole.

This Seal Skin "Toke" Transforms a Simple Gown

IT SHOULD be borne in mind that the many beautiful fur combinations which you have been seeing in the shop displays are not intended for winter furs, but are supposed to be put on almost immediately for the first cool days to give an air of elegance to the street frock of serge or silk, and to add, perhaps, a trifle of warmth. The main idea, of course, is not warmth but smartness.

It is a double idea that fur can give both style and of sumptuousness that the most elaborate frock will otherwise lack. Women have come to realize the style value of furs so deeply that they have even stood them for the heat of summer because of their picturesque effect with summer gowns. The summer furs were rather different than those now shown, inasmuch as they made liberal use of chiffon and silk to lighten their weight.

It is a noticeable fact that these new furs are mostly combinations of short-haired pelts. Where the thicker furs are used they are mostly for trimming, as witness the deep sailor collar of tailed ermine with its fluffy border of white fox. This would raise any plain gown to the degree of elegance.

A rather prim collar of sealskin with two points in back to match those in front is designed especially to fit over the collar of a plain street dress. It sets so snugly that it might almost be made into the frock itself like a yoke. The high rolling collar is lined with unmarked ermine.

Another noteworthy feature of the first fall furs is the combination of ermine valances and skins. Ermime and mole are an especially happy combination. In the straight shoulder wrap with a shallow lining of ermine for the rolled collar, a strip of ermine ending in tails is slipped thru slits in the mole to tie in front.

The white ermine which you usually associate with the name is the winter dress of the small animals which go to make up that valuable fur. In the straight shoulder wrap which you see held in front by a wide jet belt, the summer ermine is used. It is marked with grayish-purple markings, and the skins are cleverly arranged to make stripes.

A long moleskin stole shows possibilities of graceful draping in the last picture. It has a small round muff to match. This is one of the fur pieces which may be retained for wear with the winter suit.

Tox and Ermine Sailor

The Wireless Telegraph

No Distance But What Can Be Reached By the Wireless Telegraph

Records show that there are 7,000 points on file in the patent office covering wireless telegraphy and telephony.

Wireless transmission of signals to and from distant points was used long before the electric telegraph was given to the world by Professor Morse. The semaphore was invented by Franscisco de Paula in 1784, toward the close of the 18th century, and was the advantage in convenience over the post roads. It was by means of relay stations, and expert operators, that messages were sent four words a minute by this method. It was not, however, until the year 1857 that the first wireless telegraph without wires by Hertzian waves a distance of one mile. After this, the development of the art developed that the height of the antenna, or aerial wires, and the amount of electrical energy required to transmit the distance of signals could be transmitted.

The Canadian Railroad Company first made experiments with the wireless telegraph and telephone in 1899, and the system was not sufficiently developed to be of practical use. During the early part of 1900, the first wireless stations installed at Scranton and Binghamton, and it was found that the system was not so points was equally as satisfactory as the Morse telegraph and could be relied upon for a short time until a telephone service was impeded.

We can communicate from a moving train, at a speed of 60 miles per hour, a distance of 130 miles; owing to the low antenna on the passenger car we have not been able to reach a point greater distance from the train, but are able to receive messages on the train from a distance of 200 miles.

The train has a wireless antenna wire arranged in four rectangles, one on the roof of each of the four cars, and a wire, with an additional wire lengthwise, and all parallel with the top of the car, and the ends of the wires are porcelain insulators at the corners and centre of each car, with wires links connecting them. The wires clear the top of the cars about 18 inches, being low on account of the low antenna and no differences; therefore the radiating power is limited. The lead is taken from the antenna wire and passes through the side of the car near the roof into a compartment two by four feet, where it connects with the graph apparatus and the operator.

The wireless telegraph can be depended upon to work well between moving trains and fixed stations. There are many uses for the operator, such as helping the road train operation. It enables the dispatcher to keep in touch with the train, and train orders can be transmitted as accurately and reliably as if they were sent by telegraph.

The wireless, together with a selected device, can be used for setting up a telephone system.

During the year 1914 we had two storms, one in March that completely wiped out the wires between New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and the only communication for a period of ten days was by wireless. In early December, this same zone was visited by a severe ice storm, and the wires were cut, but there was communication in this territory for a period of three days. Again the wireless was used to great advantage.

Loss of means of communication between states caused by destruction of wires and wires of the part of the country.

The wireless will do the work of the electric telegraph, and does today, and even greater results are to be expected in the future, but that can be reached by the wireless telegraph if you build a tower high enough to get the needed electrical energy to propagate the wireless signals have been built in the last eight miles and miles, and as the electrical waves spread in all directions a station located on Fike's Peak would girdle the earth.

Enough Said

A railroader who has had much to do with human nature says: "Never cross-examine an Irishman from his own side. And give him an illustration from his own experience."

"A section hand had been killed by an express train and the insurance company was wise positively that the locomotive driver was at fault, until after while train had passed over his departed friend.

"So I said to him, 'Mike, I know what you think the white boar is.'

"'Yes, sir, it was, sir.'

"The other afternoon I came right up to him and said, 'Mike, would the fact be in favor of the company, would we find it—'

"'My son, Mike, would be testifying here this day.' The jury giggled.

Works Both Ways

Whatever the idea, the Teutons are setting a precedent for all dangers on their side, and the British in case the entente troops should eventually reach Berlin and Paris in the middle of next summer, are questioning by way of making stronger allied frontiers, a few million men.

The German immigrant element in Alsace, which has thriven since the war, has done its best to make itself at home, and lends itself to this treatment.

So does the German-speaking element in the Rhine and Moselle, on the unfortunate Slavs of Bohemia and Prussia and Prussian Poland. What other nations make such a snally brutalism and such a vindictiveness upon them? Eviction was a bad game for them to start,

To The Ordinary Man

By A Wounded Irish Officer, in the "Observer," London

(The following article was written by a wounded Irish officer, just arrived in this country, in reply to a request for an article on the subject of "The Wireless Telegraph.")

"I will tell you sir, that I am wholly devoid of practical literary experience, that what you are looking for is simply not to be had. The only big letter letters I have got won't get it on paper. You can get little bits; yes, and much more tiny bits, but the whole thing you have written is calculated to mislead the public, and that is because taken by itself it is essentially true, but it is not the whole truth.

"It is true that as it is seen in regard to all its contents, it is essentially false.

"If you'll believe me, the Colours of the battalion next ours borrowed a handkerchief to blow his nose, and he had his nose comfortably, and shoved the rag in his breeches pocket, and then he said, 'I am a bloodless little show that ever was.'

"When a hotel keeper says that he has to close when it is as it is seen in regard to all its contents, it is essentially false.

"I was with the regt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, cheering them on wonder-

"He was badly wounded later, in a casual sort of way, I used mine tying up a fellow's arm back

"I was shown in the legislature that out of 2000 men, 1000 were invalids, and he was half dead.

"When a hotel keeper says that he has to close when it is as it is seen in regard to all its contents, it is essentially false.

"I was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant, and he was most annoyed, and he said, 'It is a bloody little show that ever was.'

"He was with the adjt. commandant

:# LADY :# URSULA'S HUSBAND

—3V—
FLORENCE WARDEN
Word, East & Co., Limited TORONTO

(Continued)

In the meantime Lady Ursula and Paul had come downstairs ready for their walk. In the hall they met Lord and Mrs. Finchend, who had changed when he saw that she was with him.

"I thought, Ursula, you were going out with me," said he coldly.

But her sweet, pleading face made him smile again.

"I am going out with both of you," she said.

Very reluctantly the two men accompanied her, while she excused herself by addressing first the one and then the other.

She had no desire to give the opportunity of bringing the two men together, especially on a walk away from the effecting of her reconciliation between them and to make conversation in which both must join her.

She had no desire to give the opportunity of bringing the two men together, especially on a walk away from the effecting of her reconciliation between them and to make conversation in which both must join her.

But the result was not very successful.

They visited the village where Lady Ursula had been herself brought up and where the two companies were amazed at the welcome given her by the uncouth natives of the Black Country.

The way they passed the man who was evidently a man who turned his heel and disappeared, as if he were, further on in the distance, the girl looking at the disappearing figure with a strong impression that he had seen her.

On their return homewards they saw it again.

For some time he had a good look at the man and had no difficulty in remembering where he had seen the face before. He was sure that one of the two men who had made him feel sure, by their behavior in the Strand, that he was a friend or perhaps accomplices, of Paul.

The ugly story of the pearl necklace, and his doubts, flashed vividly back into his mind as Lord Eastling and Ursula went up to the other side of Lady Ursula, to this skulking figure in the overcoat and hat.

What was the man doing there? Full of his doubt of his brother-in-law, who had perhaps been a swindled somewhat by his sister's example, trusting him to do what was best, and leaving him and watching the man as he shrank away once more.

"What's I want?" said Lord Eastling, dryly.

Lady Ursula looked at her brother with a smile.

"He has a most disagreeable countenance," said she. "Has a horrid look."

"Yes," said Lord Eastling, while Paul said nothing.

Lord Eastling remained silent for the rest of the walk, being deeply occupied in conjecture concerning the appearance of the man who had left the borhood. Instantly all his doubts arose afresh and he set himself to keep watch over the movements of his brother-in-law, determined to prevent a meeting between him and the man he believed to be his accomplices, and in whom he recognized the person who had visited him.

Paul, however, never left the house for the rest of the day, except to go with Ursula to the post office to send some letters.

On the following morning, while Lady Ursula was having her hair dressed, there was a knock at the door, and Mr. Finchend came in, radiant and breathless with excitement, and threw herself into her husband's lap, laughing and apologetic.

"Oh, Lady Ursula," gasped the excited woman, "I have found my friend and three herself on the floor behind her. It's all right. I've got them."

And she stammered out a confused account of the return of the three rogues, who had been sent through the post in a shallow carton box, without a word of explanation.

Lady Ursula, who had been waiting for the pearls within it, and at the direction outside, this was in an old-fashioned box, was shocked to find that the mark was that of the nearest town.

She rose to her feet, in great excitement, and ran to the window, as soon as Mrs. Finchend had left the room.

"It's you," she said, "it was that horrid looking man we saw yesterday who stole them and who sent them with back. Don't you remember?"

Sore Eyes
Granulated Eyelid.
Eyes inflamed by exposure to Sun, Dust and Wind.
Eye Bleeding. No Smearing. Eye Comfort.
Your Doctor prescribes the Salvin's Tincture 25c. For Sore Eyes Fresh Druggist or Nurse Eye Remedy Co., Chicago

CHEW "PAY ROLL" TOBACCO

A BRIGHT TOBACCO OF THE FINEST QUALITY

10 CENTS PER PLUG

Rumania In History

Her Place in European History Has Always Been an Honourable One man who looked at us so oddly; the man a brother spoke to us, and the shaggy shoulders.

"What should he have to do with it?" he asked in surprise.

She answered:

"I am sure I'm right," said she. "I told him he was at us suspiciously; he did so!"

"But he was the third," she continued, "what should he have to do with it?"

"I think," said Lady Ursula, "that he had heard of the stir about them, and that he was afraid of us."

"I thought, Ursula, you were going out with me," said he coldly.

But her sweet, pleading face made him smile again.

"I am going out with both of you," she said.

The letter concluded these words:

"Dear Ursula, We are about to start on more nonsense. Unless we have the money or the nerves, Evans and I will be home again on Friday night. We will guess your ticket with your fine friends."

Paul read the letter at third time. Then he threw it into the fire and watched it burn.

CHAPTER XVII

"Why, Paul, what's the matter?" said Ursula, who had a good deal of anxiety in the course of late days.

"There was a sudden knock at the door. She put this question to her husband. He was standing by the fire, from Brady Game as it turned black and floated up the chimney in the fire.

He turned to her, and taking her by the hand, led her to a chair.

"Nothing, my dear. What should the matter?"

"The one I've thrown into the fire?"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

"One doesn't like to take no notice of them, for fear the story the writer tells is true."

He shook his head.

"I never trust that letter from the—"

"It was, it was a burning letter, like that."

Her countenance grew clearer.

"Ah, it's very dreadful to get such a letter, but I can't tell you what it says."

A New Stock of Footwear has just arrived consisting of a complete line of Fall and Winter Goods. Rubber goods all Guaranteed No. 1 grade. Prices right. Call and see them, it will pay you to let us supply your needs in this line.

A few Bargains in Odd lines in Leather Footwear

Harness Department

Our Robes, Blankets, Belts and everything you need in Harness goods are of the best. Foot Warmers and bricks for same always in stock.

Munson Shoe and Harness Store

MUNSON - ALBERTA

Please notify
CENTRAL PROVINCIAL COMMITTEE
EDMONTON,
Howard Stutchbury, Secy.
of
WAR VETERANS CLUB CALGARY
Wm. Asdorf, Asst. Secy.

We Print Butter Wrappers

At the following prices:
100.....$1.00
250.....1.75
500.....2.50
1000.....3.50

Send in your orders

The MUNSON MAIL

Munson - Alta.

JOB PRINTING

Letterheads

Billheads

Statements

Envelopes

Looseleaf Accounts Sheets

Posters

Dodgers

Blotters

Butter Wrappers

Visiting Cards

Invitation Cards

Tickets

Receipts

Counter Check Books

Private Greeting Cards

and any other printing that can be turned out in a first-class country office.

Prices Reasonable

THE Munson Mail

Munson - Alta.

THE LOCAL ROUND-UP

Serge Goodrich and B. V. Bray of the R. N. W. M. P., Calgary, were in town Wednesday.

Corp. P. J. Tarr returned to Calgary on Monday after spending a few weeks with his family in town.

J. H. Gordon of Beachville, Ont., spent a few days last week at the home of Geo. Horne.

The October meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held in the church on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 12th, at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Monday October 8th being a holiday (Thanksgiving) the business places in town including both elevators, will be closed.

After the 15th of October the subscription price of the Mail will be raised to $1.50 per year. Renew your subscription now.

R. M. Kennedy and wife have moved to Oyen where Mr. Kennedy has accepted a position with the Claude Dillinger Grain Company.

W. H. McMillan has purchased the feed mill on Railway Ave. from R. Fraser and will conduct the business in the future.

W. B. Walrod has just received a car load of coal which he is selling at $5.00 per ton delivered anywhere in town.

A cordial invitation is given to everyone to attend the "Tobacco and Cigarette Shower" given by Mrs. Hugh Skinner on Thursday, Oct. 12th.

Corp. A. J. Riggs returned to Sarcee Camp Sunday. Mrs. Rigs and little son accompanied him to Calgary where they will spend a few days.

The crops threshed in this district so far have been turning out splendid. Mr. Bishop's and Mr. Christensen's wheat southeast of town, we are told, went a little better than 50 bushels per acre.

Pioneer G. F. Stanton is one out of about 60 who were left behind, on account of not receiving word, when the 175th Battalion was hurriedly sent overseas. These men will be sent as a draft later or transferred to another battalion.

Wm. Foster and son, Fred, have enlisted in the 187th Battalion. Mr. Foster has considerable crop in this year and expects to look after the threshing before he joins his battalion.

The first snow storm of the season fell on Sunday and Monday and has stopped the stacking and threshing. The snow is fast disappearing, however, and the farmers hope to resume threshing in a few days.

Please remember the "Tobacco and Cigarette Shower" at the home of Mrs. Hugh Skinner on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, Oct. 12th.

Pioneer G. F. Stanton, wife and little son, Stanley, returned Tuesday from a few weeks' visit in British Columbia. They visited W. L. Clark and family in Vernon while away and say they are pleased with their new home and that they have a fine crop of fruit on their farm.

Thanksgiving Sunday

Will you do your best to present at either of the following special services:

Sunbeam 11 a.m., Rev. J. G. Rogers
Golden Grain 3 p. m., Rev. Rogers
Morrin 3:30 p.m., Mr. D. V. Boyer
Munson 7:30 p.m., Rev. J. G. Rogers
The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be held at Sunbeam and Munson. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Service at Golden Grain School

A Service conducted by Rev. J. G. Rogers will be held next Sunday (Thanksgiving Sunday) Oct. 8th and every two weeks. You are earnestly welcomed to these services, and be sure to bring the children, a special talk for them. Service from 3 to 4 p. m.

CONTRIBUTE TO 187TH BAND FUND

Citizens of Munson send contributions amounting to $112.21

Not only is the town of Munson among those of Central Alberta who have given up a number of citizens who are now members—and officers of the Central Alberta Battalion, the 187th, but she has the honor of sending a draft for $112.21, as a donation from the citizens, to the Band Fund of that Battalion, the above amount being forwarded on Monday October 8th by Mr. Bowey.

The first three items named in the list are the funds of associations which have ceased to carry on their work owing to the fact that the majority of the members enlisting and it was decided by the members remaining here that the funds be turned over to the 187th band fund.

Following is a list of the contributors:
Munson Civil Rifle Club $81.01
Munson Gun Club 20.58
Munson Athletic Club 20.60
Royal Bank of Can. (staff) 5.00
Merchants' Bank (staff) 5.00
Whyte Co. Ltd 5.00
A. M. Vallery 5.00
A. J. Lawrence 2.00
D. G. Gibson 2.00
A. M. Reid 2.00
W. B. Walrod 2.00
G. C. Duncan 1.00
McConkey & Bowey 5.00
J. Bowey 5.00
Total $112.21

SENTINEL HILL NEWS

A snow storm—Farmers are asking what next? All kinds of weather this season.

Mr. Horace Martin has donated a fine mare to the Red Cross Auxiliary of this place. Much credit is due Mr. Martin for this splendid gift and the Auxiliary is planning to raise as much money as possible from this gift. Don't fail to get one of the tickets at least.

Mr. Art Hoover entertained his friends at another of his popular dances on Friday night last.

Mr. Wilfred Lee and Mr. Bill Bicknell have each purchased a splendid new buggy.

Mr. S. Little of Calgary visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hewson recently.

Mr. Hamilton Hoy and Misses Alice and Jessie Hoy visited their brother at Drumheller recently.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Malcolm motorized from Delia on Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Barsz of Delia were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chase recently.

Mr. Aitken received word that his two sons Clayton and Jack had left Calgary with the 151st Battalion.

MARKET REPORT

Wheat

No 1 Nor.	$1.48
No 2 Nor.	1.45
No 3 Nor.	1.40
No 4 Nor.	1.29
No 5 Nor.	1.20
No 6 Nor.	1.06
Feed82

Red winter wheat 4¢ under other prices

Oats
No 2 C W.42
Extra No 1 Feed39
No 1 Feed38

Flax

No G C W.	1.95
No 2 C W.	1.92
No 3 C W.	1.62

Barley

No 371
Feed61

Produce60
Butter, No. 130
Eggs, strictly fresh35
Potatoes90

For writing pads, Envelopes, scribbles, pencils, office supplies, etc. try the Mail office.

HARVEST SEASON SPECIALS

Old English Grey Graniteware

Cheaper than Tinware

Binder Whips

35c each

We have just received a large shipment of select Hickory and Ash Woodware from Ontario

Everything in

Fork Handles, Eveners, Single and Double Trees

These are the best value we have ever been able to offer you

Threshers Supplies

OF ALL KINDS

Oak Tanned Leather Belting Pulley Lagging
Lace Leather etc. Pipe fittings of all kinds Batteries Grease cups etc. All at the old prices See our new High Oven Range-Ranges of all kinds at anti-war prices

HATS

We have a large stock of Men's Felt and Straw Hats which have to go. Call and examine them and get our prices.

Leather Gloves

Exceptional values--very large stock to choose from

McConkey & Bowey

Carload of Wood

Will arrive this week and will be delivered anywhere in town for

$4.00 PER LOAD

This wood is cut in 12 inch lengths all ready for the stove. ORDER EARLY

W. B. WALROD

Munson

Alberta

ADVERTISE YOUR WANTS IN THE "MAIL"—IT PAYS

Buy Your Heaters Early

Owing to the condition of the metal market all stoves are going up! in price. You will make no mistake in buying early this year. Come and get our prices on

HEATERS AND RANGES

before buying elsewhere

AGENTS FOR

MUFFAT'S STOVES AND RANGES

Also the Famous FiReCo Heaters and Ranges

The McLeod Hardware

MUNSON

ALBERTA

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE MAIL $1.00 A YEAR